

See the world from a new perspective

Explore the possibilities of Education Abroad

- ◆ Education abroad will set you apart from other job seekers in a competitive job market. You can highlight this experience in job interviews and on your resume.
- ◆ Learn to recognize and appreciate how culture determines behaviors and values.
- ◆ Meet new people you would not ordinarily meet on the Virginia Tech campus.
- ◆ Develop or strengthen foreign language skills.
- ◆ Develop new skills, independence, and self confidence.
- ◆ Learn what makes life in the United States different from other places in the world.

Contact:

Diana Ridgwell, Ph.D.

Director of Student Development

232 Wallace Hall, Blacksburg, VA 24061

Phone: (540) 231-6548

E-mail: dridgwel@vt.edu

www.uaao.clahs.vt.edu

Also ask about internships and work abroad programs:

Office of International Research, Education, and Development (OIREd)

www.educationabroad.vt.edu

vtabroad@vt.edu

(540) 231-5888

The Education Abroad Office at Virginia Tech sends over 800 students abroad each year.

The College of Liberal Arts and Human Sciences offers programs led by our faculty to locations all around the world.

To learn more about CLAHS faculty-led education abroad programs and the hundreds of other destinations for education abroad, go to www.educationabroad.vt.edu

Getting approval to study abroad:

Complete the "Authorization To Take Courses Elsewhere" form available at 238 Wallace or on-line at: <http://www.uaao.clahs.vt.edu/Academics/forms.htm>

*Allow a minimum of 3 weeks for processing.

Imagine the possibilities